Q3 Do you have comments on our proposed measures (page 4)?

1	I understand that the model appears to contain guidelines that would be beneficial to patients, but there would be unintended ramifications if the HCA adopts them for impact on payment. My comments here are directed at the proposed measures and exclusion criteria. The burden of abstracting the required data elements may not be evident to the collaborative. Hospitals and providers' offices may use different electronic health record systems, and thus pdf-type documents are used for communication and records. This works well for the purposes of patient care, but is not conducive to comprehensive data collection efforts, since neither entity can access the full patient record maintained by the other organization. Few of the required data elements are documented in discrete data fields, and so would require significant resources for manual abstraction. This includes those required for each measure, and also those required to determine whether a patient should be excluded from a measure. The additional costs incurred to collect this information should not be underestimated.	12/28/2020 2:32 PM
2	these are good measures	12/21/2020 4:30 PM
3	Yes, I don't see how this will work, since many of our newborns are followed up out of our system. Once they leave, we will not be able to track their "severe" complications. If they f/u with a provider in a different system and get sepsis at Day of Life 7, we can't track that. We already track most of the severe complications in our VON data, but only while they are hospitalized. We can track the other pediatric measure - ensure follow appointments are scheduled, we do this before discharge for all infants, so that is possible We have no way to track 30 day post-partum depression screen by the pediatricians and I'm not sure they pediatric doctors are doing this. Who will be responsible for tracking these measures?	12/20/2020 9:48 AM
4	The measures look appropriate from a pediatric perspective	12/18/2020 11:22 AM
5	No	12/17/2020 3:32 PM
6	These measures are appropriate.	12/15/2020 4:39 PM
7	PP visit scheduled prior to discharge-while valid concept, mothers may not know what their schedule will be in 4-6 weeks for the OB f/u. A 1 week check should be scheduled prior to d/c. Does holding an organization accountable for maternal compliance for scheduling actually increase compliance with completing the visit? If a patient does not want to f/u with their delivering OB, it may feel challenging to be forced into making this appointment before d/c	12/10/2020 9:47 AM
9	If I work at a hospital that already provides the highest level of care I will never have to transfer. Is there a penalty for our smaller hospitals or a disincentive to transfer given this quality measure?	12/8/2020 11:18 PM

1	I don't see how this can work, will reimbursements be affective if different providers do not follow this? Not all patients follow in the same system. We should not have to depend on others that we have nothing to do with to get reimbursed. Also, how will measures be followed when not every provider is using the same EMR?	12/20/2020 9:48 AM
