Inputs
Activities and Outputs
Outcomes
Impacts
Buy-in Resources
Capacity Building
Identification
Service Delivery
Long-term outcomes
State
Organizational
Community
Guidelines Adopted by HCA and other state agencies
Guidelines uptake by stakeholder organizations
Recommendations acceptable to community and community organizations
Increased coverage for out-of-pocket cost items
Educational resources developed (e.g., SDM tools) and SDM process
Transition to prospective payment models
Incentivization
Expansion of screening settings
Expansion of team-based care and SDM process
Individuals with high BP referred to treatment
Increased identification of individuals with high BP
More individuals seeking screening
Individuals with high BP newly enrolled in care
Individuals with high BP engage in shared decision making with team
Individuals with high BP have timely follow-up
(poor outcome) long wait times for care/unable to access care
Increase in management plans for individuals with high BP
Increase in individuals able to self-manage BP
Increase in people who "know their numbers"
Community receives resources and information about hypertension screening, management, and access to care
Decrease in BP control disparities by social and economic factors
Increase in BP screening
Increase in BP control