

The 2nd Annual Northwest Conference on Information Technology and Patient Safety

May 17, 2005, Seattle, WA

Agenda

- 7:00 Registration, Continental Breakfast
- 8:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks: Dr. Michael Glenn, Virginia Mason Medical Center; Vice Chair, Washington Patient Safety Coalition Steering Committee
- 8:15 Keynote presentation: Using Health Information Technology to Improve Safety & Quality:
William Yasnoff, MD, PhD, Founder and Managing Partner, NHII Advisors; former Senior Advisor, National Health Information Infrastructure, DHHS.
- 9:15 Concurrent sessions
 A. Beyond Bar-coded Meds – How an EMR Can Enhance Patient Safety: Cheri Galusha, Sacred Heart Medical Center
 B. Patient Safety and The Electronic Health Record: Dr. Michael Krall, Kaiser Permanente
 C. EHR Vendor Selection and Contract Negotiation: Mike Uretz, EHR Group
- 10:15 Break
- 10:30 Concurrent sessions
 A. CPOE Implementation: Dr. Marc Del Beccaro, John Dwight, and Dr. Matt Eisenberg, Children's Hospital & Regional Medical Center
 B. Addressing the Safety Gap During Transition from Manual to Electronic Systems: Dr. Thomas Payne, University of Washington
- 11:30 Lunch
- 12:30 Concurrent sessions
 A. EMR Implementation in a Rural Clinic Network : Greg Brandenburg, CEO, and Drs. Misbah Keen and Shakti Matta, Columbia Basin Health Association
 B: Building Patient Safety into a New Hospital: Jeanne Eylar, Pullman Memorial Hospital
 C. The Value-Added Proposition for Adopting an EMR: Drs. Ron Fessenden and Claude DeShazo.
- 1:30 Concurrent sessions
 A. The Oregon Trail: Where Patient Safety, Information Technology, Telehealth and Reality Converge. Kim Hoffman, Oregon Health Sciences University
 B. Distribution of Clinical Data Between Organizations: Dr. Ronald Dobson, Exexecutive Director of Emergency Services, Swedish Medical Center
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 Plenary: Healthcare IT Trends and Glimmers: David Garets, FHIMSS, President and CEO, HIMSS Analytics
- 3:45 Closing Comments: Peter B. Summerville, Rialto Communications, Consultant to CHITA
- 4:00 Adjourn